Secretary to Government of Mysore
General Department, Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honour to enclose herewith a statement showing the distribution of the Report and Tables volumes of the Census Repor of 1921 and proposals for the distribution of the volumes of 1931, an to request that sanction of Government be kindly obtained to the prop distribution of the volumes of the present Census. The number agains the Census Commissioner is 135 less than on the last occasion. This been fixed in consultation with him. As the total number of copies required comes to 850 allowing a margin for unlooked for requisitions, I intend printing only 850 copies. The number of copies available f sale is fixed at 100. This number is not likely to be required for sale and part of it will be available for other use if need should ar
